Promote Your Business at I-RIM Conference 2018

Suppliers will have a new way to reach attendees at the 2018 International Reflective Insulation Manufacturers (I-RIM) Conference May 9-10 in Costa Rica. We are doing away with table top and pop-up exhibits and providing suppliers time right in the program to present their company, products and/or services to all conference guests.

There are SEVEN sponsor slots built into the program providing each sponsor ten minutes of presentation time. Suppliers can choose their preferred slot assigned on a first-come, first served basis; so the sooner you reserve your space, the more choices there will be. This change allows all conference guests to use social time at catered functions and breaks for networking and relationship building and guarantees suppliers get their message out to everyone. Sponsors may also provide literature to be given to registered attendees at check in. This is an exclusive benefit of show sponsors and provides them exclusive exposure to all conference guests. Sponsors will also be recognized in pre- and on-site marketing materials and brochures as well as on the RIMA-I website. Even more incentive to secure your spot now!

You can indicate your interest in sponsorship either by e-mailing RIMA International at rima@rima.net, by using the online registration form at www.rimainternational.org (under the I-RIM Conference –Costa Rica) or by completing the attached registration form. Remember, there are only SEVEN slots so secure your space today! <https://www.rimainternational.org/i-rim-conference/2018-i-rim-conference-costa-rica/>
