RIMA International Recognizes Retiring Board Members

The Reflective Insulation Manufacturers Association International (RIMA-I) held their bi-annual membership meeting which took place October 21st in Washington, DC. Four board members were presented plaques, by President Doug Kinninger, and recognized for their service as Directors on the RIMA-I Board. The following retiring Directors' terms will expire December 31, 2018:

Mr. Peter Highfill of LL Flex, LLC in Louisville, KY (www.LLFlex.com)

Mr. Mike Boulding of Pro-Echo Marketing in Crandall, Texas (www.pro-echo.com)

Ms. Veronica Ataya of Celplast Metallized Products in Toronto, Canada (www.celplast.com)

Mr. Lynn Walters of Kemper System America in West Seneca, NY (www.heatbloc.com)

A special thank you was extended to each Director for their generous service to the RIMA-I Board, to the membership and to the industry. Their hard work and dedication is vital to the continued growth and recognition of reflective insulation, radiant barriers and interior radiation control coatings (IRCCs). For more information about RIMA International, our Verification Program, research, technical and educational materials, membership, programs, and more, visit our website at www.rimainternational.org.

The Reflective Insulation Manufacturer's Association International is a group of dedicated people working together to propagate the knowledge and use of reflective insulation, radiant barriers and interior radiation control coatings (IRCCs). RIMA-I has been the major force in establishing fair ASTM standards for testing and installation procedures. RIMA-I welcomes all who are interested in promoting and directing the growth of the industry. For more information about membership or the industry, please contact Executive Director Mary Edmondson at 800/279-4123 or visit us on our website at www.rimainternational.org.
